

EVACUATE NOW WOM STAUDAVE EVACUATE NOW WOM STAUDAVE

Moria camp was more than an overcrowded and unsafe camp – it had been a central piece of the EU's brutal migration policy. It had become a symbol of how Europe treats people on the move. The fire in Moria was just as horrific as it was predictable. The suffering of the people who fled the fire is unbearable and it gets worse hour by hour, unless we intervene. That is why we call on all European governments to act now. We demand to immediately evacuate all refugees from the Greek islands and make way for a municipal reception across Europe. //seebruecke.org
